

Create the future together

As a globally operating machine tool company, success is first and foremost the credit of our employees, who care for our company's guidelines and our customers with expert knowledge, passion and creativity. We are currently looking for a retooling technician to assist our team in Shanghai as soon as possible.

Job requirements:

- Mechanical preparation of tool components
- Soldering of tool components
- Grinding of tools with semi-automatic grinding machine
- Adjustment of air gauging system
- Adjustment of runout for long tools
- Assembly of tool components
- Quality check

Properties:

- Mechanical knowledge and feasibility
- Confident with technical drawings
- Capable to analyze problems independently
- Structured working attitude
- High quality feeling

For 90 years, we have provided technologies which made honing what it is today – a globally demanded performance process. Every engine, every bearing and every gear is honed – a process for which we are your reliable supplier.

